STATINTL

Dear Mr. Saunders:

Please accept my apologies for the delay in communicating with you.

My record indicates that a balance of $165.47 is due and I assure you it will be paid. However, because of other obligations that I have been meeting, this payment will be delayed.

In a short while, I shall either pay it or advise you as to the date on which it will be paid.

Very truly yours,

/s/

In your letter of December 28, 1956, you advised that you would check your records regarding the balance of $165.47 which, according to our records, is still outstanding. As of this date we have had no word from you regarding this matter.

Your cooperation in closing this matter will be greatly appreciated.

Very truly yours,

E. R. Saunders
